

Advent Meditations with Saint Faustina (Paperback)

By Catherine M. Odell

Liguori Publications, U.S., United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Join the Apostle of Mercy as you prepare for Christ's birth! Born into an impoverished Polish family living in what was then the Russian Empire, Helena Kowalska heeded God's call to join the convent, where she was initiated in 1926 as Sister Maria Faustina of the Blessed Sacrament. Sister Faustina experienced visions of Jesus and Mary, during one of which Our Lord revealed that she was to spread the devotion of the Mercy of God. Sister Faustina is perhaps best known for The Chaplet of the Divine Mercy. The purpose of this beautiful three-fold, rosary-based prayer is to obtain mercy, to trust in Christ's mercy, and to show mercy to others. This useful pamphlet features four weeks of daily meditations drawn from Saint Faustina's writings, each of which is accompanied by a relevant scripture quotation. It takes readers through the entirety of Advent and Christmastide, laying a rich foundation for celebrating these seasons. Deluxe pamphlet. This item is not returnable.
