

The Negro artisan Report of a social study made under the direction of Atlanta University together with the proceedings of the seventh Conference . held at Atlanta University, on May 27th, 1902

By William Edward Burghardt Du Bois

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 84 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.2in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1902 edition. Excerpt: . . . would be of very much use to them as skilled workmen. The wages are such that a young man would not be induced to brave the disadvantages to fit himself for the trades. There seems to be a difference of opinion as to whether the Negro is gaining or losing in skilled work. But we think that from the fact that there is such a great discrimination in wages which would possibly force the best mechanics to seek other employment more remunerative, and because of the low class of work which the Negro is forced to do in many of the trades, which robs him of any chance to do fine work and to become an all-round workman in his trade, and from the many limitations and unjust laws passed by the labor unions, the Negro in our section is losing. This may not...

READ ONLINE
[7.23 MB]

Reviews

Complete guide! Its this kind of very good read through. I really could comprehend almost everything out of this written e publication. Your lifestyle span is going to be transform the instant you complete looking over this book.

-- Reilly Keebler IV

This pdf is definitely not easy to get started on studying but quite entertaining to read through. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Ms. Fatima Erdman