

Like Blood in Water (Paperback)

By Yuriy Tarnawsky

Jef Books, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Revised ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The themes of alienation, abandonment, and fear of death, which permeate The Future of Giraffes and View of Delft, respectively the second and third book of the Placebo Effect Trilogy, are originally brought up in the first book, Like Blood in Water. A man accidentally wanders into a session similar to Primal Scream therapy and devotes his life to screaming from then on. A pianist stops playing because he feels his right hand isn't there. A father searches for a bible and eats toothpaste in anticipation of his daughter's drowning at a seaside resort called Penal Port. A Luciano Pavarotti look-alike agrees to be killed in a reenactment of the murder of Agamemnon. And a man dresses up in a mountain climber's outfit as he goes in for a surgery procedure he has been trying to avoid at all cost. The five mininovels that make up Like Blood in Water, as is the case with its two companions, all employ negative text-gaps of vital information which the reader is obliged to supply himself. By bringing personal experience into the...
