God, who loves you, and has long waited for your decision, will help you. Go to one of the classes next Sunday morning; and may Jesus meet and bless you. Shortly after, on a Sabbath morning, this longsought brother came into Ballycanew to preaching; and while a class was meeting in one room of his Uncle Morriss house, he went into another, and seeing the Bible open looked into it incidentally, when the following passage met his eye, and was applied to his conscience by the convincing Spirit with power: He that being often reprov'd hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy. Immediately he went into the class-room; joined himself to the society with purpose of heart; soon experienced conscious justification; and not long after became a preacher of righteousness. The people on the Drogheda Circuit anxiously desired that Mr. T. should remain a third year, and steps were taken to secure his appointment. Never in my life, he observes, did I feel more passive. The Lord shall choose my inheritance for me; then all shall be well. CHAP. VI. 1830-1835. --Wicklow, Bandos. There were reasons sufficiently strong, in the judgment of the Conference, for Mr. T. s appointment to the Wicklow circuit, in July, 1830. His correspondence exhibits the same ardent longings for exalted spiritual attainments, and for success in his beloved work, during his stay on this circuit; while his state of mind was more chequered, his joy...
