Be more than an athlete who happens to be Christian. Be a Christian who happens to be an athlete! Through these seven Bible studies, one a day for a week, you will get to know God in a fresh new way! You ll also begin to see how He is working in your life. It s the beginning of an exciting new challenge! This book is intended to serve as a spiritual check-up for Christians and although the theme of this little study book involves talk of athletics and running, it can help any person find their way to the truth that can sustain them through difficult and trying times associated with living. There s a distinct advantage to the person who trains themselves spiritually; because the athlete who is spiritually fit will be a better performer in the contest. The faith and determination that help Christian athletes finish the race is the same faith that helps them through personal challenges.
