By Laura Lippman

Harper, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reissue. 185 x 107 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Private investigator Tess Monaghan doesn't know quite what to make of her new client, Mark Rubin a wealthy Orthodox Jew who refuses to shake her hand and doles out vitally important information in grudging dribs and drabs. The successful Baltimore furrier claims he and his beautiful wife had a flawless, happy marriage. Yet one day, without warning, Natalie gathered up their children and vanished and the police can't do anything because all the evidence indicates she left willingly. But the deeper Tess digs, the more she suspects that the motive behind Natalie's reckless flight lies somewhere in the gap between what Rubin will not say and what he refuses to believe. An intricate web of betrayal and vengeance is already beginning to unravel, as memory begets rage, and rage begets desperation . . . and murder. And suddenly the lives of three innocent children are dangling by the slenderest of threads.
