By Bj Morton

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Texas Writers Journal is a quarterly publication that encourages the cultivation of creativity and recognizes the talents of Texas writers, musicians and artists. Each issue is filled with written works by our annual competition finalists in fiction, non-fiction and poetry. Each piece has been reviewed and rated high in reader appeal giving our subscribers quality reading material. Readers can even participate in our competition by submitting their votes and comments. Each book is designed to encourage writing within each book by providing blank journal style pages along with cartoons, artwork and interesting words and facts to stimulate the brain. Interviews with Texas writers, musicians and artists help round out our quarterly presentation of local talent. We delve into the processes, motivations and projects of native writers, songwriters and artists. There will be something for everyone every quarter. In this issue: Interview with Nicholas Bridwell by journalist Kim Diggs, Works from finalists - Sarah Wilson, Lana Broussard, Paula Douglas, Meredith Hardwick, Brandon Stanley, Leonora Raye, Pat Haddock, Lily Newsom, Bryan Grafton and a blast from the past written by Rod...
