Excerpt: .woman possesses that influence in society which is her due, whether regarded as the affectionate mother, the kind sister, the loving bride, devoted wife, or officiating nurse, whose intense anxiety on the suffering, imparts yet more interest to her character, the civilization of a nation progresses. It has been justly stated, that where the education of women is neglected, a nation can be but half happy. In Europe, their influence in politics is unseen to the sight, but are nevertheless the soul itself of almost every undertaking, their secret influence being the spirit of nature. The warlike Spartans were governed by their females. In note 59 we have related the mighty efforts of the Ethiopian king, to keep the political bias of the ladies of his kingdom within bounds. The superior civilization of the New Zealanders compared to the Australians, (the most degraded of...
