The Making of a Great Pastor: Keys to Fulfilling God's Divine Calling in Ministry (Paperback)

By Gregory Erhabor

Spokesman Communication Ministries, Nigeria, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Great pastors are those who leave a long- lasting legacy behind. They do not only build institutions, they build men. They have an excellent spirit. To them being called to serve, is a privilege, not a right. They live like debtors to their generation. These pastors do not emphasize what men owe them but see themselves as being called to serve. Their glory is not in the crowd in their churches but in their credibility; not in their beautiful churches but in the beautiful lives that come as a result of the sermons they preach; not in their worldly riches but in the impact of the principles of righteousness in the lives of their congregation. In all things, they do not model the CEOs of this world but they follow the path of the great CEO of the universe- our Lord Jesus Christ. In an age where mediocrity is the statusquo, great pastors are rare but everyone who is desirous to do a great work for God can be one. In this short book, I outline some of the principles...
