Digitalhistoryproject.com, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Killing The Presidents: Presidential Assassinations Assassination Attempts Killing The Presidents offers a fascinating look at the Presidents who lost their lives, the motives and mental states of the assassins, and the reactions of the public to the shootings. Among the characters you will meet are: Charles Julius Guiteau, the man who shot James Garfield. He told authorities I was in my bed . and I was thinking over the political situation, and the idea flashed through my brain that if the President was out of the way everything would go better. And later, during his trial, he added, I presume I shall live to be President. Some people think I am as a good man as the President (Chester A. Arthur) now. John Schrank, the man who shot Theodore Roosevelt, said In a dream I saw President McKinley sit up in his coffin pointing at a man in a monk s attire in whom I recognized Theodore Roosevelt. The dead President said-This is my murderer-avenge my death. And, so he shot, and wounded the Bull Moose Candidate. John Wilkes Booth, the assassin of President Lincoln, wrote in his diary just a few nights before his death, I have to great a soul to die like a criminal. The stories are amazing. The similarities between each of the assassinations make you sit up and think. Most of the assassins discovered the President s itinerary by reading the newspaper. Leon Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, told authorities, Eight days ago, while I was in Chicago, I read in a Chicago newspaper of President McKinley s visit to the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo. That day I bought a ticket and got here with the determination...
