Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.(Note: this is the trade paperback version of the book, size: 6x9, revision date 23rd August 2017) This book takes you on a transformational journey and shows you a different way of looking at the world. Be part of a perception change underway as a Black Swan Event. The book shows readers the importance of positive mindsets, and that you will find true happiness by knowing and being yourself. The second chapter speaks about self-worth and value to motivate and inspire. Following on from worth, the book touches on perception, to show the value of suspending judgement and asking readers to view the world through different lenses of perception. Thoughts on happiness and love are next, and then a journey of faith gives insight into the author's Christian beliefs. This sets the scene to touch on the next topic, which is the value of looking on all people with compassion and suspending judgement, and the book then moves on to thoughts of criticism, blind spots and secrets as pathways to inner growth and acceptance. Fear, anger, and bullying are dealt with next, including thoughts on what causes discrimination. This then sets the scene for a chapter on emotions, hurt, and healing, showing the value of honouring feelings and choosing to respond instead of react, as well as how forgiveness sets you free. Next is a chapter on personal change: personal change can happen, and comes from an awareness of limiting patterns as well as an understanding that change is needed. The end of the book concentrates on the power each of you have as individuals to make a difference, and to make a stand for your beliefs. The book...
