To make matters worse, he must now deal with the betrayal he suffers after being shot at, at his own night club. Ma Ioni, though pure at heart, comes to terms with the fact that some secrets are better left unknown. After having found out that her mother, the woman who put her through hell as a child, was not her mother at all, Ma Ioni secludes herself from the outside world. Vowing to focus solely on herself after discovering her boyfriend of six years had more skeletons in his closet than she could imagine, an old love interest resurfaces in her life and it seems to be the only thing that can save her. Tiny and Santez are still at each other's throats. Hurt and betrayed, Tiny vows to never love again. The pain Santez caused her as rendered her heart unrepairable. Or so she thinks. It isn't until a life-threatening situation plagues her does she have a change of mind.
