

The Sound of One Tree Falling: New and Selected Poems

By Llewellyn McKernan

MOTES. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 108 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.1in. x 0.2in. THE SOUND OF ONE TREE FALLING: NEW AND SELECTED POEMS by Llewellyn McKernan is an example of the kind of lyrical work that poet laureate Fred Chappell has described as being both in the world and of the world. In the foreword to this collection, Chappell writes that McKernans poetic talent makes use of both sides of this paradox and joins the worldly and the unworldly by fusing them together with complementary kinds of metaphor. To see her at work here is something like watching an arc welder annealing together two different kinds of metal. The poet herself explains in her introduction that she intends her poems to reflect on and illuminate several themes that emerge from her lifespan in rural America. McKernans writing specifically addresses these themes: That pure simple life . . . sustained by perseverance and hard, dirty work, the kind of strange beauty that at times can be found in the evangelical religious experience, joy and sorrow in the intense bonds formed by close-knit extended families, and deep respect for unschooled wisdom. Traversing her transplantation, from her childhood in Arkansas to an...
