The Rise of Silas Lapham

By -

Tark Classic Fiction. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 276 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.1in. x 0.9in. Mr. Howells has written a long series of poems, novels, sketches, stories, and essays, and has been perhaps the most continuous worker in the literary art among American writers. He was born at Martin's Ferry, Belmont County, Ohio, March 1, 1837, and the experiences of his early life have been delightfully told by himself in ABOY'S TOWN, MY YEAR IN A LOG CABIN, and MY LITERARY PASSIONS. These books, which seem like pastimes in the midst of Howells's serious work, are likely to live long, not only as playful autobiographic records, but as vivid pictures of life in the middle west in the middle of the nineteenth century. The boy lived in a home where frugality was the law of economy, but where high ideals of noble living were cheerfully maintained, and the very occupations of the household tended to stimulate literary activity. He read voraciously and with an instinctive scent for what was great and permanent in literature, and in his father's printing-office learned to set type, and soon to make contributions to the local journals. He went to the state...
