William Dehon, Rector Reverend and Dear Sir: I am directed by the Vestry of St. Philip s church to request that you will furnish us for publication with a copy of your eloquent and impressive Sermon, delivered at St. Philips church yesterday, on the occasion of the death of our beloved and lamented pastor and rector, the Reverend William Dehon. Our pastor was so dear to his congregation that such a record of his life and sketch of his character as your Sermon contains will be very highly prized by them. Dear Sir: Your note, conveying the request of the Vestry of St. Philips church, that they be furnished for publication with a copy of the Sermon preached at the request of your Assistant Minister, on the occasion of the death of your beloved rector, has been handed me. If you think that the imperfect sketch of his character which I have attempted will be at all useful in embalming in the memory of an affectionate and bereaved flock the Christian graces and pastoral faithfulness of the departed, I do not feel at liberty to decline.
